ECHOES

We rarely remember flavour alone,
but rather the feeling it leaves behind.

Memory lingers in moments shaped by emotion, atmosphere and sensation, the subtle details that quietly endure long after the occasion has passed.

A flavour, an aroma, a fleeting image;
each has the power to awaken something familiar, transporting us back to a moment
once beautifully lived.

OF MEMORY

A BAR IS LIKE A GREAT
THEATRE, WELCOME TO OURS. SALUTE!

CONTENTS

RECOLLECTION

6-13

Memory triggered by flavour itself. This category explores how taste and aroma can instantly awaken personal or shared memories through comfort, familiarity and emotion. These cocktails are designed to feel naturally evocative, flavours that feel recognised before the memory can even be explained.

ELSEWHERE

14-21

Memories of places lived, visited or imagined. This category explores how flavour can recall cities, landscapes, cultures and moments connected to a location. These cocktails are designed to transport the guest somewhere else through taste, atmosphere and ingredients.

TOUCH & FEEL

22-29

Memories expressed through texture, material and physical sensation. This category explores tactile memories such as wood, leather, grass and smoke, translating them into flavour, aroma and mouthfeel.

DÉJÀ VU

30-37

Memories that feel altered, blurred or fragmented. This category explores dreams, déjà vu and flashbacks through cocktails that evolve over time and challenge perception and expectation.

ROB ROY

Johnnie Walker Whisky (c. 1980), Martini Rosso
Vermouth (c. 1970), Angostura Bitter (c. 1950)

A variation on the classic sweet Manhattan cocktail, created in 1894 at New York's Waldorf-Astoria Hotel. Named after the Broadway show that was showing that time

£250

HANKY PANKY

Booth's Gin (c. 1939), Martini Vermouth (c. 1970),
Fernet Branca (c. 1970)

Created by the first female mixologist, the renowned Ada Coleman for English stage actor, Sir Charles Hawtrey, who wanted something with a bit of punch - upon tasting this, he declared "By Jove, That is the real hanky-panky!"

£250

EL PRESIDENTE

Havana Rum Plata (c. 1980), Noilly Prat Dry Vermouth (c. 1970),
Grenadine (c. 1930), Cointreau (c. 1930)

Originating in 1920s Havana, this beautifully balanced cocktail is linked to Cuban president Gerardo Machado. Trader Vic dubbed it "the Martini of Cuba"

£300

*A 15% discretionary service charge will be added to your final bill.
All prices include VAT. A £5 cover charge applies from 9pm until midnight.*

SIDECAR

Hine Cognac (c. 1938), Cointreau (c. 1930),
Lemon Juice

The Sidecar was likely invented around World War I. It graced the pages of two books in 1922: "Harry's ABC of Mixing Cocktails" by Harry MacElhone and "Cocktails and How to Mix Them" by Robert Robert Vermeirh

£450

JACK ROSE

Apple Jack Brandy (c. 1920), Grenadine (c. 1930),
Lemon Juice, Angostura Bitter

The Jack Rose is named after a French general Jean-François Jacqueminot. According to the Waldorf-Astoria Bar Book 1935, it is so-called because of its pink colour, the exact shade of Jacqueminot Rosé

£350

NEGRONI

Beefeater Gin (c. 1930), Martini Rosso Vermouth (c. 1970),
Campari (c. 1970)

Invented in 1919 at the Caffè Casoni in Florence. Count Camillo Negroni demanded that Bartender Fosco Scarselli strengthen his favourite cocktail "Americano" by replacing Soda Water with London Dry Gin

£350

*A 15% discretionary service charge will be added to your final bill.
All prices include VAT. A £5 cover charge applies from 9pm until midnight.*
